Monthly Journal of
The Madras Printers' and Lithographers' Association

PRINT IS PRECIOUS
FOREVER

The Madras Printers & Lithographers Association was established in 1952. The Association was FOUNDER in the formation of All India Federation of Master Printers in Madras. In the course of 60 years, the Association has stood the test of time and successfully overcome the pangs of growth. In an era where technology is changing at a bewildering pace, the Association is poised to meet the challenges of the time. It has a band of dedicated men who guide its destiny with maturity and confidence. We are bringing out a magazine in the name of "Coramandal printer" which has been very useful for the interested public.

As you are well aware, Coramandal Printer, the monthly journal of "The Madras Printers' & Lithographers' Association" is one of the best acclaimed magazines of the printing industry in India. We are proud in informing you that you will be served promptly through news packed 12 issues of our journal in a year. The 38th year (2015) of our publication bears the testimony for it. We endeavor to stick to the schedule of release in the very same month seriously. The dissemination of collated news from all areas of the Printing Trade and industry with updated information for your reading and consumption is our aim. This publication is for the benefit of all connected with the Printing, Publishing and allied industries.

We would only impress upon you to feel the excellence through our experience in Coramandal Printer, and now it is your turn to be a proud subscriber of Coramandal Printer.
